

The Whirlpool

... its violations

Collectivity
Playfulness
Free time
Resistance
Subversion

... its commandments

- Antagonism between labourers and the controllers of their past produce and present labour.
- Maximising returns, minimising costs.
- Competition between production enterprises, corporations, nations, institutions, sects and individuals.
- Mobility of money, resources and people.
- Global purchase and sale.
- Globally interconnected goods and ideas.
- Assurance of total self destruction, environmentally, physically, ethically and spiritually.

... and its realities

The grinder roller

Police, Army,
Bureaucracy, Judiciary,
Policy makers
Schools, Universities,
Media, Families
Management Representation and Delegation

Resistance & Subversion

Management of discontent & repression

Motivator & Coercer

The Furnace

Maximising returns, i.e., extraction by – minimising wage maximising
working hours
maximising
work intensity worsening working conditions

Managerial ingenuities managing –

- levels of exhaustion
- scales of eradication
- range of extraction
- effectivity of seduction

Wage Workers

Who are
Who would be Who try to be
Who are discarded and those who aspire to be managers

Control, discipline,
punishment for extraction

Work to survive
Resistance & Subversion

Peasants & Artisans